Resurrection Sunday!

Jesus answered, "I tell you, Peter,
before the rooster crows today, you will deny three times that you know me."

Luke 22:34

As I come across this passage, I find that Jesus is speaking to Peter shortly before His arrest. He tells Peter what is about to happen. I'm sure Peter never thought that he would deny Christ. He loved Him with all of his heart. But that's exactly what happened. As I ponder how this applies to my own life, I might ask myself "How do I deny Christ?", "In what ways am I like Peter and how will I pray in advance of this weakness?" Asking yourself questions and applying scripture to your own life helps you set aside your selfish desire and draw closer to God.

I'm not going to dig into the meaning or history of the Easter Bunny. I did enjoy the candy in my basket every year when I was growing up, but I also have many memories of attending church on Good Friday and feeling the somber weight of what Christ endured in order to take the punishment for my sin. Even as a little kid, it really grieved me. I just couldn't understand why God needed the sacrifice of His only Son to pay the price. Why not some other way?

As I pondered for a long time the “why” of Jesus’ death and the feeling of grief it brought to my heart, I missed focusing on the resurrection. I missed the faithfulness of the Father and His perfect plan of provision that we celebrate on Easter. After three days in the grave, Jesus rose from death and was alive again. He defeated sin and death. He completed the work of paying for my sin, your sin and all the sins past present and future for all who place their faith in Him.

Because of the first Resurrection Sunday when Jesus rose from the dead, we too have new life when we believe. When we die, everyone goes to one of two places—heaven or hell. If you trust Jesus and believe that He died for your sin and took your punishment, His blood atones for your sins and you are a new creation. One that is free from the stain of sin and death. You have assurance that when you leave this earth, you will immediately be in the presence of the Lord. What assurance we have because of what Jesus did for us!

In Christ's Love,

Kevin

“And if Christ is not risen then our preaching is empty, and your faith is also empty.”

1 Corinthians 15:14 NKJV

Spring is here, and with it, signs of new life are everywhere. Already the grass seems greener, and flowers are starting to bloom. There is beauty on every corner. For Christians, the Easter season is a time of new beginnings and a time of rebirth. After spending several weeks reflecting on Christ’s journey to the cross, we celebrate His resurrection and our victory over sin and death. And while we only sing this Easter hymn once a year, take a moment to ponder again on Christ’s glorious resurrection and the gift of eternal life. Let us “raise our joys and triumphs high” and “sing ye heavens and earth reply.”

Just as Robert J. Morgan states in THEN SINGS MY SOUL (2011 edition, pg. 79), “Charles Wesley still preaches today... through his ageless hymns which are sung around the world each Sunday. Perhaps his most exuberant anthem is the one he simply called, ‘Hymn for Easter Day,’ published in 1739.”

Christ the Lord Is Risen Today

*Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!
Sons of men and angels say, Alleluia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!
Sing, ye heavens, and earth, reply, Alleluia!*

*Lives again our glorious King, Alleluia!
Where, O Death, is now thy sting? Alleluia!
Dying once He all doth save, Alleluia!
Where thy victory, O Grave? Alleluia!*

*Love's redeeming work is done, Alleluia!
Fought the fight, the battle won, Alleluia!
Death in vain forbids Him rise, Alleluia!
Christ hath opened Paradise, Alleluia!*

*Soar we now where Christ has led, Alleluia!
Following our exalted Head, Alleluia!
Made like Him, like Him we rise, Alleluia!
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies, Alleluia!*

1 PETER 1:17-18
AND IF YE CALL ON THE FATHER,
WHO WITHOUT RESPECT OF PERSONS
JUDGETH ACCORDING TO EVERY MAN'S WORK, PASS THE TIME OF YOUR SOJOURNING HERE IN FEAR.
FORASMUCH AS YE KNOW THAT YE WERE NOT REDEEMED WITH CORRUPTIBLE THINGS, AS SILVER AND GOLD, FROM YOUR VAIN CONVERSATION RECEIVED BY TRADITION FROM YOUR FATHERS.

THE REAL LOVE AND THE REAL
WORSHIP TO GOD ARE ALWAYS MARKED BY THE COMPREHENSION
THAT HE IS A LOVING FATHER,
MERCIFUL AND GENEROUS; BUT HE IS ALSO A HOLY JUDGE THAT DISCIPLINES.
IF WE CALL HIM OUR FATHER, WE HAVE TO KNOW THAT HE IS IMPARTIAL TO JUDGE EACH ONE OF US ACCORDING TO OUR DEEDS.
THAT'S WHY PETER WROTE LIVE AS FOREIGNERS HERE IN REVERENT FEAR.

THE CERTAINTY THAT HE WILL JUDGE
OUR DEEDS IS OUR MOTIVATION TO LIVE IN SANCTITY.
WE HAVE TO REMEMBER THAT WE ARE ONLY PASSING THROUGH THIS WORLD, THAT WE ARE ONLY PILGRIMS.

THE FEAR OF GOD IS A REVERENT
FEAR TO OUR GOOD LORD, NOT A FEAR OF A CRUEL GOD. WE SHOULDN'T LIVE ACCORDINGLY TO OUR OLD DEEDS AND PASSIONS.
WE ARE NOW CHRIST BELIEVERS. HE PAID THE PRICE FOR OUR SINS AND HE DID IT WITH HIS BLOOD

We want to thank everyone for all the very generous donations to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering this year. One hundred percent of this offering goes to local missionaries in our country who work to spread the gospel and good news of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Your prayers and support are vital to the ministry of these very dedicated servants. Thank you again for your support of this important ministry.

You are invited to join us on Tuesday, April 12th at 11:00 am in the Common Ground Classroom for our regularly scheduled monthly meeting of the Women on Mission Group. Come join us for a time of good fellowship as we discuss and plan mission projects.

Johnny & Karen Dickson would like to thank you for the prayers, cards and love shown to them for the loss of Karen's brother, Dewey F. Stuart, Jr.

The Nelson Family would like to thank the church members who graciously gave of their time to serve a meal after Bud's service. The food & fellowship meant so much to the family.

All the children, youth, and adult volunteers were incredibly thankful to be back on schedule with the Wednesday night fellowship. What a blessing to worship, to fellowship, and to praise God in the church fellowship hall full of happy, eager individuals!

Here are some wonderful quotes heard from this month's Wednesday night Kingdom Kids: "First Baptist is my church! This is where I worship! I love you! I like coming here!"

The verse 1 Timothy 4:12 comes to mind: "Let no one look down on you because you are young but be an example and set a pattern for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in [moral] purity."

One theme was sin. A teen defined sin as the opposite of God. Sin is the opposite of love. Jesus tells us in John 16:9 that the "world's sin is unbelief in me [Jesus]." All of us are born with a sinful nature as Romans 7:17 tells us. What is the cure? The cure is Jesus: "Jesus personally carried away our sins in His own body on the cross, so we can be dead to sin and live for what is right. Peter 2:24" Let God give you a new nature: "If you have the Spirit of God living in you, you are controlled by your new nature. Romans 8:9" When you are tempted, your emergency kit is calling out to God for help! You can recite a Bible verse. Most importantly, you must repent, turn from sin, and re-train your way of thinking!

Another theme was Proverbs 23:7 "For as he thinks in his heart, so is he." We all must be careful what we think. We must think positive, truthful thoughts. The Devil is after the minds of all with the evil perpetuating from the world around us. We must all remember that we are God's masterpiece, created in Christ Jesus to do good works Ephesians 2:10. God loves us. We must never "get tired of doing what is right, never give up, and one day we will have a great blessing. Galatians 6:9" "Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. Philippians 4:8"

HE IS RISEN

Holy Week or Passion Week, is the week leading up to Easter!
This is an account of Holy Week Outlined by Mary Fairchild

Day 1: Triumphal Entry on Palm Sunday

On the Sunday before his death, Jesus began his trip to Jerusalem, knowing that soon he would lay down his life for our sins. Nearing the village of Bethphage, he sent two of his disciples ahead, telling them to look for a donkey and its unbroken colt. Then Jesus sat on the young donkey and slowly, humbly made his triumphal entry into Jerusalem, fulfilling the ancient prophecy in Zechariah 9:9. The crowds welcomed him by waving palm branches in the air and shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!” On Palm Sunday, Jesus and his disciples spent the night in Bethany, a town about two miles east of Jerusalem. This is where Lazarus whom Jesus had raised from the dead, and his two sisters Mary and Martha, lived. They were close friends of Jesus and probably hosted Him and His disciples during their final days in Jerusalem. Jesus triumphal entry is recorded in Matthew 21:1-11, Mark 11:1-11, Luke 19:28-44, and John 12:12-19.

Day 2: On Monday, Jesus Clears the Temple

The following morning, Jesus returned with his disciples to Jerusalem. Along the way, he cursed a fig tree because it had failed to bear fruit. Some scholars believe this cursing of the fig tree represented God’s judgement on the spiritually dead religious leaders of Israel. Others believe the symbolism extended to all believers, demonstrating that genuine faith is more than just outward religiosity, true living faith must bear spiritual fruit in a person’s life.

When Jesus arrived at the Temple, He found the courts full of corrupt money changers. He began overturning their tables and clearing the Temple, saying “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be a house of prayer’, but you have turned it into a den of thieves” (Luke 19:46). Monday’s events are recorded in Matthew 21:12-22, Mark 11:15-19, Luke 19:45-48, and John 2:13-17)

Day 3: On Tuesday, Jesus Goes to the Mount of Olives

On Tuesday morning, Jesus and his disciples returned to Jerusalem. They passed the withered fig tree on their way, and Jesus spoke to his companions about the importance of faith. Back at the temple, religious leaders were upset at Jesus for establishing himself as a spiritual authority. They organized an ambush with the intent to place him under arrest. But Jesus evaded their traps and pronounced harsh judgement on them saying: “Blind guides!...For you are like white washed tombs—beautiful on the outside but filled on the inside with dead people’s bones and all sorts of impurity. Outwardly you look like righteous people, but inwardly your hearts are filled with hypocrisy and lawlessness... Snakes! Sons of vipers! How will you escape the judgement of hell?” (Matthew 23:24-33). Later that afternoon, Jesus left the city and went with his disciples to the Mount of Olives, which sits due east of the Temple and overlooks Jerusalem. Here Jesus gave the Olivet Discourse, an elaborate prophecy about the destruction of Jerusalem and the end of the age. He speaks, as usual, in parables, using symbolic language about the end times, including His Second Coming and the final judgement. Scripture indicates that this Tuesday was also the day Judas Iscariot negotiated with the Sanhedrin the rabbinical court of ancient Israel, to betray Jesus (Matthew 26:14-16).

After a tiring day of confrontation and warnings about the future, once again, Jesus and the disciples returned to Bethany to stay the night. The tumultuous events of Tuesday and the Olivet Discourse are recorded in Matthew 21:23-24:51, Mark 11:20-13:37, Luke 20:1-21:36 and John 12:20-38.

Day 4: Holy Wednesday

The Bible doesn't say what the Lord did on the Wednesday of Passion Week. Scholars speculate that after two exhausting days in Jerusalem, Jesus and the disciples spent this day resting in Bethany in anticipation of Passover. In Bethany just a few nights earlier, Lazarus' sister Mary had lovingly anointed the feet of Jesus with expensive perfume.

Day 5: Passover and the Last Supper on Maundy Thursday (Holy Week takes a somber turn)

From Bethany, Jesus sent Peter and John ahead to the Upper Room in Jerusalem to make the preparations for the Passover Feast. That evening, after sunset, Jesus washed the feet of the disciples as they prepared to share in the Passover. By performing this humble act, Jesus demonstrated by example how believers should love one another. Then Jesus shared the feast of Passover with his disciples saying: "I have been very eager to eat this Passover meal with you before my suffering begins. For I tell you now that I won't eat this meal again until its meaning is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God." (Luke 22:15-16 NLT) As The Lamb of God, Jesus, was about to fulfill the meaning of Passover by giving his body to be broken and his blood to be shed in sacrifice, freeing us from sin and death. During this Last Supper Jesus established the Lord's Supper, or Communion, instructing his followers to continually remember his sacrifice by sharing in the elements of bread and wine (Luke 22:19-20). Later, Jesus and the disciples left the Upper Room and went to the Garden of Gethsemane where Jesus prayed in agony to God the Father. Luke's Gospel says that "his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground" (Luke 22:44 ESV). Late that evening in Gethsemane, Jesus was betrayed with a kiss by Judas Iscariot and arrested by the Sanhedrin. He was taken to the home of Caiaphas the High Priest, where the whole council gathered to begin making their case against Jesus. Meanwhile, in the early morning hours, as Jesus' trial was getting underway, Peter denied knowing his Master three times before the rooster crowed. Thursday's events are recorded in Matthew 26:17-75, Mark 14:12-72, Luke 22:7-62, and John 13:1-38.

Day 6: Trial, Crucifixion, Death, and Burial on Good Friday

Good Friday is the most difficult day of Passion Week. Christ's journey turned treacherous and acutely painful in these final hours leading to his death. According to Scripture, Judas Iscariot was overcome with remorse and hanged himself early Friday morning. Meanwhile, before the third hour (9 am) Jesus endured the shame of false accusations, condemnation, mockery, beatings, and abandonment. After multiple unlawful trials, he was sentenced to death by crucifixion, one of the most horrible and disgraceful methods of capital punishment known at the time. Before Christ was led away, soldiers spit on him, tormented and mocked him and pierced him with a crown of thorns. Then Jesus carried his own cross to Calvary where again, he was mocked and insulted as Roman soldiers nailed him to the wooden cross. Jesus spoke seven final statements from the cross. His first words were, "Father, forgive them for they do not know what they are doing." (Luke 23:34 NIV). His last words were, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." (Luke 23:46, NIV) Then about the ninth hour (3 pm), Jesus breathed his last breath and died. By 6 pm Friday evening, Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea took Jesus' body down from the cross and lay it in a tomb. Friday's events are recorded in Matthew 27:1-61, Mark 15: 1-47, Luke 22:63-23:56, and John 18:28-40, 19:1-42.

Day 7: Saturday in the Tomb

Jesus' body lay in its tomb where it was guarded by Roman soldiers throughout the day on Saturday, which was the Sabbath. When the Sabbath ended at 6 pm, Christ's body was ceremonially treated for burial with spices purchased by Nicodemus. "He brought about seventy-five pounds of perfumed ointment made from myrrh and aloes. Following Jewish burial custom, they wrapped Jesus' body with the spices in long sheets of linen cloth." (John 19:39-40) Saturday's events are recorded in Matthew 27:62-66, Mark 16:1, Luke 23:56, and John 19:39:40.

Day 8: Resurrection Sunday

On Resurrection Sunday, or Easter, we reach the culmination of Holy Week. The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the most important event of the Christian faith. The very foundation of all Christian doctrine hinges on the truth of this account. Early Sunday morning, several women (Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Salome and Mary the mother of James) went to the tomb and discovered that the large stone covering the entrance had been rolled away. An angel announced: "Don't be afraid! I know you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He isn't here! He has risen from the dead, just as he said would happen." (Matthew 28:5-6, NLT)

On the day of his resurrection Jesus Christ made at least five appearances. Mark's Gospel says the first person to see him was Mary Magdalene. Sunday's events are recorded in Matthew 28:1-13, Mark 16:1-14, Luke 24:1-49, and John 20:1-23.
